

EXCELLENCE GIRLS CHARTER SCHOOL

ADVISORY COMMENT LETTER

JUNE 30, 2012

October 18, 2012

To the Board of Trustees
Excellence Girls Charter School

In planning and performing our audit of the financial statements of Excellence Girls Charter School (the "Charter School") as of and for the year ended June 30, 2012, in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, we considered the Charter School's internal control over financial reporting (internal control) as a basis for designing our auditing procedures for the purpose of expressing our opinion on the financial statements, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Charter School's internal control. Accordingly, we do not express an opinion on the effectiveness of the Charter School's internal control.

A deficiency in internal control exists when the design or operation of a control does not allow management or employees, in the normal course of performing their assigned functions, to prevent, or detect and correct misstatements on a timely basis. A material weakness is a deficiency, or combination of deficiencies, in internal control, such that there is a reasonable possibility that a material misstatement of the entity's financial statements will not be prevented, or detected and corrected on a timely basis.

Our consideration of internal control was for the limited purpose described in the first paragraph and was not designed to identify all deficiencies in internal control that might be material weaknesses. Given these limitations, during our audit we did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that we consider to be material weaknesses. However, material weaknesses may exist that have not been identified.

During the course of our audit of the financial statement of Excellence Girls Charter School as of June 30, 2012 and for the year then ended, we observed the Charter School's significant accounting policies and procedures and certain business, financial and administrative practices. As a result of our observations, we suggest you consider the following comments which we do not consider to be significant deficiencies or material weaknesses:

Status of matters included in our letter as of June 30, 2011 dated October 18, 2011:

Dual Signatures

During our audit, out of a selection of 4 checks in amounts greater than $5,000, none of the checks had the dual signature required under the bylaws of the Charter School.

Recommendation

We recommend the Charter School adhere to their check signing policy requiring dual signatures for amounts over $5,000.

Status as of June 30, 2012

During our audit, out of a selection of 2 checks in an amount greater than $5,000, one check did not have the dual signatures required under the bylaws of the Charter School.

Approval for Transfers of Funds to Uncommon Schools

During our audit, we selected certain transfers made from the Charter School to Uncommon Schools, Inc. (USI) which primarily related to payment of management fees. We noted that in one instance the transfer of funds was not authorized in writing by the Director of Operations.

Recommendation

We recommend the Charter School adhere to their internal control policy requiring approval from the Director of Operations prior to transferring funds to USI. This will remove any appearance of impropriety as the actual bank transfers are made by USI personnel.

Status as of June 30, 2012

No unapproved transfers were noted during performance of audit procedures. Based on our testing, transfers were properly authorized during the year ended June 30, 2012.

We believe that the implementation of these recommendations will improve the controls in place and efficiency of the Charter School's internal control.
