Program Design

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School is to provide children of varied academic strengths quality educational opportunities, preparing them academically, socially and emotionally to become critical thinkers, high-achieving students and well-rounded individuals. Working in partnership with families and community members SAHCS instills a powerful sense of self and gives its students the tools to own the future and create meaningful adult lives.

We envision Storefront Harlem to be a small, intimate learning community in which all students and adults are known and treated with respect and kindness. The school's key design elements are replicative of our successful sister institution, SASBCS. Our vision is to provide a rigorous, joyful and intentional learning environment for all students – one that paves the way for high school, college and life success. Our methods are not radical but are thoughtful and practiced. The Storefront approach draws upon 52 years of experience in early childhood development and education, and lessons learned from our sister institution, SASBCS.

Storefront Harlem's whole child model demands that equal attention be paid to social and emotional wellness as to academic readiness. We believe that children cannot reach their full potential in the classroom unless their nonacademic needs are met. Therefore, our staff will do all they can to ensure students receive the support they need to become confident and emotionally strong individuals. Accordingly, the following core values are central to our ability to nurture social and emotional skills and encourage wellness among Storefront students. They include:

- Honesty: Tell the truth (no matter the consequences) and approach everything with integrity;
- Respect: Do not judge others. Be kind and considerate and do not touch others' property;
- Responsibility: Be prepared (e.g., do one's homework, report to class on time, etc.) and do not blame others for one's actions;
- Concern for Others: Help others in need (academically or emotionally), make everyone feel accepted and included and practice selfless behavior;
- Diligence: Work hard all of the time (e.g., read at home each evening, put forth one's best effort in class consistently); and
- Persevere: Push oneself to success despite difficulties and challenges.

These core values permeate all aspects of the Storefront model including its academic programs, responsive classroom practices and discipline policies.

KEY DESIGN ELEMENTS

We have learned quite a bit from our founders' work in early childhood education, and the launch and implementation of SASBCS. Our model ensures that Storefront schools achieve the following program goals. To:

1. Ensure all students have a strong academic skill set. To accomplish this, we will hire and empower strong and qualified teachers, provide curricular supports built around student need and common core standards, and use assessments to inform and strengthen instructional practice.

2. Meet the needs of all learners by providing differentiated instruction in all classrooms, utilizing small groups for targeted instruction and intervention, administering the Response-to-Intervention approach to support struggling learners, and building a tight-knit community where every child is known and no child falls through the cracks.

3. Provide opportunities for enrichment and exploration of the world. We accomplish this by providing strong arts programming, encouraging trips into the community and beyond, and bringing volunteers to campus to work with and mentor students.

4. Involve parents in their children's education. We will invite parents into classrooms as active participants their children's learning. We will build strong home/school communication practices to inform parents of their children's challenges and achievements and help parents to become advocates for student improvement.

5. Build strength of character and self-confidence in each student. We will accomplish this by teaching strategies for public speaking and delivering presentations, creating opportunities for community service, and building a culture of student agency by valuing student voice.

We believe technology to be an important aspect of 21st century learning. Every Storefront classroom is equipped with a smartboard and a computer station. The school is also equipped with a computer lab and IT instructor for all grade levels to participate in IT as a special for one hour per week. In this class students will focus on creating word documents, PowerPoint presentations, creating tables and spreadsheets to take their learning to the next level. Through project-based activities and the publishing of writing assignments, students will maintain technological pacing with their peers throughout the country and the world.

Field trips are an integral component and supplement to Storefront's classroom teaching and learning. Our field trips are designed to expose students to civic and cultural institutions, activities and events, and the opportunity to apply classroom knowledge to real-world inquiries, explorations, investigations and problem-solving. Often, our field trips are used to reward students for their diligence, perseverance and hard work – or simply to provide an opportunity for just plain fun!

Responsive Classroom strategies employed the first six weeks of each academic year and followed by positively-stated behavior expectations communicated daily during Morning Meeting and classroom instruction, and biweekly community meetings wherein core values are discussed, and students and staff are recognized for their achievements.

We believe social and emotional learning (SEL) is key to academic performance and positive life outcomes. Led by our school counselor, students engage in two, 30-minute sessions per week focused on the application of knowledge, attitudes and skills needed to manage emotions; establish, persist and achieve positive goals; feel and show empathy for others; establish and maintain positive relationships; and make healthy and responsible choices. The counseling team uses the RULER Approach and the school's core values to create the SEL curriculum. RULER is an evidence-based strategy for integrating SEL into schools developed at the Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence. RULER applies "hard science" to what has traditional been referred to as "soft skills."

Mentoring programs are organized and implemented by our donors and other affiliated persons and include a weekly women's and monthly men's mentoring. Mentors are assigned to one student in grades 4-8 whom they visit weekly during the child's lunch hour to bond, talk, or share a craft or skill. Mentors remain with their dedicated student for the remainder of the child's matriculation at the Storefront. Similarly, new teachers also are mentored. Veteran teachers are matched with a novice peer (by the administration). Once matched, both veteran and novice teachers foster a supportive, meaningful relationship.

Annual spring career days provide Storefront students exposure to various fields of study and work. During career days different members of the community and school family volunteer to come and speak to students. These volunteers bring props and artifacts from their field of work and share their experiences with the school community.

The goal of Storefront's parent education program is four-fold, to: 1) increase opportunities for engagement; 2) provide peer learning on various topics including student assessments and test prep (i.e., Winter Wonder Workshop) and Donuts for Dads and Muffins for Moms events with guest speakers; 3) orientation workshops including, but not limited to Kindergarten Round Up for new parents; and 4) knowledge-building to increase the capacity of parents to advocate for their children's education such as our support group for parents of students with disabilities.

Storefront's strong school culture and sense of community is sustained via annual traditions, rituals and events. For example, students and families are oriented to "the Storefront way" during new student orientations held each June and Meet Your Teacher/Open House for all families scheduled every August. Other occasions include those promoting family time and fun like our annual Sesame Place family trip, community service activities (e.g., Toys for Tots and Christmas Angels/Adopt a Family), holiday celebrations (e.g., Trunk or Treat, Mother's Day Brunch, African Heritage Week and Cinco de Mayo), and cultural activities like our Pre-Celebration for NYC's annual Puerto Rican Day Parade and instill pride in our school, ourselves and our peers. More frequently and during the last Friday of each month, students participate in our core value-themed school wide assemblies during which a designated class presents a program, "Shout Outs" are shared, and students-, teachers- and staff-of-the-month are honored.

Our founders' visits, oversight, leadership and/or support of SASBCS have provided significant background and knowledge about the key design elements that comprise the Storefront model and are convinced that these model components will result in academic achievement for the children of East Harlem.

BRIEF OVERVIEW OF ACADEMIC PROGRAM

A Rigorous and Expansive Curriculum Employing Diverse Pedagogies and Assessments

Storefront's curricula, though similar to most elementary schools in New York State, is grounded in our core values (see above) and the belief that students must develop ownership of their educational progress. Hence, curriculum content and instructional delivery are based on the principles of student agency and diligence and perseverance respectively. Student agency is facilitated by establishing a positive school culture; creating an environment wherein strong peer-to-peer, staff-to-student and school-to-home relationships can develop, are nurtured and allowed to flourish; and students engage in relevant, appropriate and rigorous learning activities that encourage inquiry, collaboration and real-world applications.

In brief, Storefront's curriculum includes:

English language arts curriculum uses the Journeys reading program to engage readers, includes the typical skill-building strategies such as guided reading practices using Fountas & Pinnell's leveled-books and benchmark assessments, and intervention strategies for students struggling with English language acquisition including Fundations (used in our Tiers 1 and 2 RTI strategy and focused on phonics, spelling and handwriting for grades K-3) and Double Dose (Wilsonlanguage.com) approach for English learners (Els). Storefront's literacy program also includes Writer's Workshop portfolios – a collection of various genres of writing gathered over time and measured by Common Core-aligned rubrics to demonstrate students' ability and growth as writers. In addition to guided reading, specific pedagogies include independent and peer group practice via learning centers. Lastly, reading, writing, speaking and listening standards are embedded across Storefront's curricular and instructional programs.

Numeracy skills and content are developed using Singapore Math. Storefront's math program focuses on developing students' math language (i.e., the ability to communicate mathematical ideas and problem-solving), concepts and arithmetic skills. Like ELA, mathematic pedagogies include direct instruction and independent and peer group practices.

Our science program uses Next Generation Standards-aligned Science Dimensions. The curriculum supports Storefront's preference for inquiry-based instruction and applied learning strategies. Teachers guide students through and exploration of the physical, biological and environmental sciences teaching them to analyze, apply and explain the content that they learn.

Storefront's Social Studies program is standards-aligned and infuses literature and current events thereby creating opportunities for practical applications of our school's core values and social emotional learning. Students engage in a variety of activities which validate our commitment to community service and provide a foundation for learning about the world, the United States, New York State, New York City and their role within each. Through hands-on activities and grade-level presentations during biweekly community meetings, students are afforded the opportunity to demonstrate to the school community their grasp on the content.

Storefront's visual and performing arts program includes standards-aligned teacher-developed art lessons. Like our core academic curriculum, our arts and movement/physical education studies capitalize on our young students' curiosity and uses an essential questioning approach to guide art explorations and projects. Our standards-aligned music program provides instruction in the musical elements (e.g., rhythm, melody, harmony, structure, timbre and musical expression) and literacy. Specifically, students explore the arts through the processes of creating, performing, presenting, producing/curating, responding and connecting to real-world applications. This makes Storefront's arts program is an effective complement to our social studies and reading curriculum.

Physical education and movement not only engages students in physical fitness activities, but also exposes them to recreational pursuits that reinforce a sense of community and team work. Every six weeks students are exposed to different games, individual and team sports, Zumba, and yoga. The program emphasizes physical fitness and strengthening to maintain good physical conditioning and overall physical and mental health.

Across the content areas, teachers facilitate learning using various pedagogies including whole class direct instruction mini lessons, small group guided instruction and cooperative learning centers, and project-based group inquiries.

We employ a multi-tiered student assessment system that includes:

- Annual administrations of the New York State ELA, mathematics and science assessments;
- The NWEA MAP reading, language usage and mathematics assessments administered three times annually to inform the instructional program and to measure student performance growth;
- Fountas & Pinnell reading assessment system also administered three times annually;
- Summative assessments including end-of-unit and end-of-course exams in Journeys and Singapore Math;
- Teacher-developed assessments and
- Informal assessments include various checks for understanding such as Do Now's and Exit tickets.

Lastly, the description of our education program above provides evidence of Storefront's values-based learning environment and established culture of high expectations. Storefront Harlem will provide the children and families of East Harlem a quality school model nonexistent among the public options currently available to the community.

School Management

MANAGEMENT STRUCTURE

Storefront Harlem is a replication of our South Bronx charter. Once the two education corporations merge, both schools will be managed under a single management structure. The Executive Director ultimately is responsible for the overall academic, fiscal and operational performance of both schools. The ED is responsible for ensuring model fidelity, overall school performance makes sure that the schools advance adequately towards achieving the goals outlined in the schools' Accountability Plan. The ED manages two site-based Principals who in turn supervise one Assistant Principal, instructional staff and teachers, and an Operations Manager.

ROLE OF CMO OR PARTNER(S)

Not applicable. Storefront Harlem is not managed by a CMO or partner organization.

School Facility Plans

(a) Facility Needs

We propose to locate our school in East Harlem, in the northeast quadrant of CSD 5. We have determined that we will need 45,000 – 55,000 square feet in total to accommodate full enrollment. In Year 1, we will need four general education classrooms with two additional rooms added each year until we reach full enrollment in SY2026-27. At full enrollment, our facility needs include:

- Cafeteria/dining space/multipurpose room
- Nurse's office
- Reading Room/Library
- Computer lab
- Counseling Suite
- Conference Room
- Teacher's Work Room
- Main Office

We do not intend to offer a residence program for students.

(b) Facility Selection

Our founders are considering multiple public and private facility options. However, to ensure we maintain our small school learning environment and allocate the majority of our revenue to classroom instruction, we are considering a collocated space in East Harlem. While very few district facilities in CSD 4 and 5 are underutilized, the NYC DOE Underutilized Space Memorandum for SY2017-18 indicates that approximately 300 seats may be available in PS 138, 144 E 128th St, New York, NY 10035 and nearly 500 seats available at the Coalitions School for Social Change, 2351 1st Avenue, New York, NY 10035. Both facilities are within our catchment area though further investigation is needed to determine current availability of classroom and common area space.

We also have begun to explore opportunities to work with established charter school facility providers. These efforts have been spearheaded by our ad hoc facilities committee led by Robert Rylee of Development Ventures Group, a member of our founding team. The committee preliminarily has begun to identify available properties within our catchment area that are ripe for development into a charter school campus that will eventually serve 450 students in grades K-8. Some of the facility options available to us include adaptive re-use of existing structures, and new ground-up construction. Accordingly, we have spoken with two brokerage firms (Cushman & Wakefield and ARC) and conducted internet searches of properties available in the area. Two possibilities have emerged. Both require some work to become classroom space, one with more significant rehab needs than the other. Should we locate our school within a private facility in Years 1-2 (only if public space is unavailable in our catchment area), our founding board will ensure that development costs are commensurate with the NYC DOE facilities subsidy provided to charters on a per pupil basis and our attorneys will ensure that the facility meets NYSED or NYC Department of buildings' School Use ("G)" and state sanitary, specifications prior to opening.

(c) Facility-Related Conflicts of Interest

Not applicable. The education corporation will not own or lease the facility we select.

NOTE: We have uploaded floor plans and costs associated with two possible private facility spaces to Request-16d.

SCHOOL ESTABLISHMENT

1. Community Need and Impact

(a) Community Description and Need

Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School (hereafter referred to as Storefront Harlem) will be located in East Harlem in the northeast quadrant of Community School District (CSD) 5. This area is bounded on the west by Fifth Avenue and the east by the East River. The catchment area stretches as far south as East 116th Street (bordering CSD 4) and as far north as East 142nd Street.

Community Description: This northern, East Harlem community is vibrant, diverse and growing. Several large-scale mixed-use construction projects are underway along 2nd and 3rd Avenues. The area contains many restaurants, entrepreneurs, artists and musicians, the National Black Theater and La Marquetta. Residents live in the Lincoln, Milbank-Frawley, Robinson and Wagner Housing Projects; a number of large apartment complexes (particularly near 1st Avenue to the south and the East River farther north), and numerous brownstone apartments. While the elevated Metro North commuter train line along Park Avenue and the FDR Expressway along the East River are both eye sores, the small businesses located along these transportation zones appear to thrive. The 4, 5, and 6 train lines stop at 125th Street and Lexington Avenue providing a major transportation hub for the area due to its proximity to the Metro North commuter rail. One of the most aesthetic attractions to the area is Marcus Garvey Park which includes a public pool, recreation center, amphitheater, basketball courts, and children's playground equipment.

Community Demographics: Comprising zip codes 10037 and the northern end of 10035, East Harlem is a racially and ethnically diverse community that boasts a very rich cultural and political history. Approximately 58% of residents living in the catchment area described above are African American and 39% are Latino.[1] Numerous cultural institutions, festivals and traditions, and civic organizations are located within this community. Despite this rich history and numerous assets, nearly 50% of residents are unemployed,[2] less than half of the adults in this community have finished high school and approximately 17% have received a bachelor's degree. Furthermore, about 35% of families in the northeast quadrant of CSD 5 live in poverty and 21% are foreign born.

Description of Students Served: Storefront Harlem intends to serve students in grades K-8 (see R-04ab for more details). Statutory admissions preference is afforded to students residing within CSD 5, returning students and siblings of enrolled students.

Rationale for Selecting CSD 5: We decided to locate our school in the northeast quadrant of CSD5 for several reasons:

- The community statistics – particularly the high unemployment and low high school and postsecondary education attainment rates – are similar to those of our replicating school, Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School. These statistics indicate a significant need for neighborhood children to receive a strong academic foundation at the elementary and middle grade levels. We believe Storefront Harlem will positively influence the number of eighth-graders who enroll in NYC's competitive high schools thereby increasing the high school graduation rate and the number of community members holding a bachelor's degree.

- Area families have demonstrated their interest, indicated their support and engaged in our planning process (see Appendix D of our Letter of Intent, R-03j and R-15c).
- The Children's Storefront – founders of our replicating school, Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School – have provided educational and family services to members of this neighborhood since 1966, and therefore, are a recognized member of the community. We will build upon this rich East Harlem history, and the success of our replicating charter to provide the families and children of East Harlem a quality education program.
- Local school performance among District schools ranks below the state average based on the NYS ELA and Math Assessments. Fewer CSD 5 students also scored below the District-wide average of 28.5% and 20.3% on the NYS ELA and Math Assessments respectively (see the table on the next page for detail.

Lastly, while elected officials and community board leaders have demonstrated a reluctance to sanction additional charters in CSD 5, our outreach activities and the subsequent input we received from community residents have yielded great interest in Storefront's holistic approach to education and student and family services (see R-03j and R-15c). As mentioned earlier, we project a supply gap in available Kindergarten seats for area children during the next five years. We believe family demand and the projected gap in supply provide compelling reasons to provide the children and families of CSD 5's East Harlem community an additional neighborhood school option for children and families residing in this locale.

(b) Programmatic Input

Analysis of Enrollment Impact: For District schools, the normal grade configuration for elementary school students in CSD 5 spans grades K-5 and grades 6-8 are typically standalone middle schools. Accordingly, the District has 12, K-5 open enrollment schools serving students in these grade levels. However, there are only five and three District schools serving grades 6-12 and 6-8 respectively. Because Storefront Harlem's grade configuration is K-8, the school's families will not have to compete for these limited sixth-grade seats. The majority of Storefront Harlem's students will enroll at Kindergarten with additional enrollment options prioritized in grades 1-2 and backfill occurring in the upper grades as seats become vacant and total student enrollment drops below the 90% threshold.

Despite the number of District and charter elementary schools located within CSD 5 there are too few neighborhood school options available to the children and families residing in the northeast quadrant of CSD 5. The 2016 Census reported approximately 885 and 2,063 children under the age of five lived in zip codes 10037 and 10035[3] respectively. Conservatively, we estimate nearly 1,209 neighborhood children will need Kindergarten seats in 2019. Currently, there are only five district and charter schools offer elementary education within the aforementioned catchment area. Each of these schools is operating at full enrollment, and combined, provide only 321 Kindergarten seats to neighborhood children. We project a supply gap of approximately 887 Kindergarten seats for each year of Storefront Harlem's first charter term.

Furthermore, we took a look at the programmatic options available in CSD 5. We learned that too few schools involve innovative design elements. For example, while P.S. 125 Ralph Bunche and Success Academy include extended learning time and programming and Harlem Children's Zone Promise Academy II include wrap-around services, no schools currently located in East Harlem offer the personalized learning, expansive family and community programming, a full arts and technology program, AND the social and emotional teaching and learning practices that characterize the Storefront model. A more comprehensive description of our school's unique and key design elements can be found in R-05ae.

In addition, the overwhelming majority of CSD 5 elementary schools serve grades K-5 and only xx serve the middle grades. This means that neighborhood children must travel outside of their neighborhood to attend middle school. Since Storefront Harlem will provide an enrollment plan that includes the middle grades, the school's presence will not pose an undue burden the very few schools serving preadolescents. Therefore, Storefront Harlem's proposed enrollment plan for the first and second charter terms pose negligible impact on the public and non-public schools located in our catchment area and CSD 5 as a whole.

Furthermore, as the table below illustrates, CSD 5[4][5] students in grades 3-8 District schools perform below the State average[6][7] on the NYS ELA and Math Assessments.

Location	NYS ELA Assessment		NYS Math Assessment
	Level 3	Level 4	Level 3	Level 4
CSD 5	17%	7%	11%	6%
State	27%	13%	23%	18%

Students in grades 3-8 attending the following CSD 5 schools performed higher than the District average. All of the schools listed below (except Columbia Secondary School) have comparable student populations as determined by race/ethnicity, ELLs and SWDs.

- Columbia Secondary School
- Harlem Children's Zone Promise Acad I Charter School
- Harlem Children's Zone Promise Acad II Charter School
- KIPP Infinity Charter
- KIPP STAR College Prep Charter
- Neighborhood Charter School of Harlem
- Success Academy Charter School – Harlem 2
- Success Academy Charter School – Harlem 5

Furthermore, we found that among the District schools, too many students are suspended. Of the 19 CSD 5 schools serving students within the K-8 grade configuration who reported data from SY2016-2017, there were 477 suspensions at a rate just over 25 per school site per year.[8] To the contrary, during the same year, Storefront South Bronx suspended a total of two students. (c) Fiscal Impact

Enrollment Expectations and Programmatic Viability: As mentioned above, we intend to open one school with 100 students in grades K-1 in the first year of the first charter term. By our fifth year, we plan to serve 300 students in grades K-5, reaching our full enrollment of 450 students in grades K-8 by SY2026-27. There are currently 10,730 students enrolled in CSD 5 public schools. This means that Storefront Harlem will enroll .009% and .042% of the District's students in Years 1 and 5 of the first charter term respectively. Therefore, given the fiscal impact on these enrollment expectations, and the projected supply gap for Kindergarten seats and few public education options available to families within the catchment area – both mentioned earlier in this section – we believe that Storefront Harlem will not significantly impact admissions or enrollment at existing schools in CSD 5, nor, therefore, these schools' overall programmatic viability.

Per Pupil Allocation Assumptions v. Projected District Budget and Yearly Projected Impact: Based on the NYC City Council's report, 2018 per pupil charter school funding will equal $14,527.[9] All indications are that this amount will increase to approximately $15,508 per charter school student using projections from Governor Cuomo's 2019 preliminary budget.[10] However, for the purposes of

2. Addressing the Need

(a) Mission

The mission of Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School is to provide Kindergarten through eighth-grade students of varied academic strengths quality educational opportunities that prepare them academically, socially and emotionally to become critical thinkers, high-achieving students and well-rounded individuals. Working in partnership with families and community members SAHCS instills a powerful sense of self and gives its students the tools to own the future and create meaningful adult lives. Storefront Harlem's mission is revised from our replicating school and will apply to all Storefront schools going forward.

Storefront Harlem provides a small, intimate learning community in which all students and adults are known and treated with respect and kindness. The school's key design elements are replicative of our successful sister institution, SASBCS. Our vision is to provide a rigorous, joyful and intentional learning environment for all students – one that paves the way for high school, college and life success. Our methods are not radical but are thoughtful and practiced. The Storefront approach draws upon 52 years of experience in early childhood development and education, and lessons learned from our sister institution, SASBCS.

Storefront Harlem's whole child model demands that equal attention be paid to social and emotional wellness as to academic readiness. We believe that children cannot reach their full potential in the classroom unless their nonacademic needs are met. Therefore, our staff will do all they can to ensure students receive the support they need to become confident and emotionally strong individuals. Accordingly, the following core values are central to our ability to nurture social and emotional skills and encourage wellness among Storefront students. They include:

- Honesty: Tell the truth (no matter the consequences) and approach everything with integrity;
- Respect: Do not judge others. Be kind and considerate and do not touch others' property;
- Responsibility: Be prepared (e.g., do one's homework, report to class on time, etc.) and do not blame others for one's actions;
- Concern for Others: Help others in need (academically or emotionally), make everyone feel accepted and included and practice selfless behavior;
- Diligence: Work hard all of the time (e.g., read at home each evening, put forth one's best effort in class consistently); and
- Persevere: Push oneself to success despite difficulties and challenges.

These core values permeate all aspects of the Storefront model including its academic programs, responsive classroom practices and discipline policies.

(b) Key Design Elements

We have learned quite a bit from our founders' work in early childhood education and the launch and implementation of our replicating school, SASBCS. The following Key Design Elements are revised from the charter application our 2014 charter application and will apply to all Storefront schools going forward. The Storefront model is designed to ensure the following program goals are achieved:

- Ensure all students have a strong academic skill set. To accomplish this, we will hire and empower strong and qualified teachers, provide curricular supports built around student need and common core standards, and use assessments to inform and strengthen instructional practice.
- Meet the needs of all learners by providing differentiated instruction in all classrooms, utilizing small groups for targeted instruction and intervention, administering the Response-to-Intervention approach to support struggling learners, and building a tight-knit community where every child is known and no child falls through the cracks.
- Provide opportunities for enrichment and exploration of the world. We accomplish this by providing strong arts programming, encouraging trips into the community and beyond, and bringing volunteers to campus to work with and mentor students.
- Involve parents in their children's education. We will invite parents into classrooms as active participants their children's learning. We will build strong home/school communication practices to inform parents of their children's challenges and achievements and help parents to become advocates for student improvement.
- Build strength of character and self-confidence in each student. We will accomplish this by teaching strategies for public speaking and delivering presentations, creating opportunities for community service, and building a culture of student agency by valuing student voice.

Our founders' visits, oversight, leadership and/or support of SASBCS have provided significant background and knowledge about the key design elements that comprise the Storefront model and are convinced that these model components will result in academic achievement for the children of East Harlem.

Learning Environment:

- Storefront's curricula, though similar to most elementary schools in New York State, is grounded in our core values (see above) and the belief that students must develop ownership of their educational progress. Hence, curriculum content and instructional delivery are based on the principles of student agency[1] and diligence and perseverance respectively. Student agency is facilitated by establishing a positive school culture; creating an environment wherein strong peer-to-peer, staff-to-student and school-to-home relationships can develop, are nurtured and allowed to flourish; and students engage in relevant, appropriate and rigorous learning activities that encourage inquiry, collaboration and real-world applications.
- Storefront's approach to culture and climate is unique in that is combines various research-based strategies and effective practice to ensure we achieve our vision of a joyful and intentional learning environment. Accordingly, Responsive Classroom strategies are employed during the first six weeks of each academic year and reinforced by positively-stated behavior expectations communicated daily during Morning Meeting,[2] classroom instruction and biweekly community meetings. During these gatherings, core values are discussed, and students and staff are recognized for their achievements.

- We believe social and emotional learning[3] (SEL) is key to academic performance and positive life outcomes. Led by our school counselor, students engage in two, 30-minute sessions per week focused on the application of knowledge, attitudes and skills needed to manage emotions; establish, persist and achieve positive goals; feel and show empathy for others; establish and maintain positive relationships; and make healthy and responsible choices. Our counseling team uses the Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence's RULER[4] approach and the Storefront's core values to create our school's SEL curriculum.

Teaching and Learning:

- We believe technology to be an important aspect of 21st century learning. Every Storefront classroom is equipped with a smartboard and a computer station. The school is also equipped with a computer lab and IT instructor for all grade levels to participate in IT as a special for one hour per week. In this class students will focus on creating word documents, PowerPoint presentations, creating tables and spreadsheets to take their learning to the next level. Through project-based activities and the publishing of writing assignments, students will maintain technological pacing with their peers throughout the country and the world.
- Field trips are an integral component and supplement to Storefront's classroom teaching and learning. Our field trips are designed to expose students to civic and cultural institutions, activities and events, and the opportunity to apply classroom knowledge to real-world inquiries, explorations, investigations and problem-solving. Often, our field trips are used to reward students for their diligence, perseverance and hard work – or simply to provide an opportunity for just plain fun!
- Across the content areas, teachers facilitate learning using various pedagogies including whole class direct instruction mini lessons, small group guided instruction and cooperative learning centers, and project-based group inquiries.

Nonacademic Programming:

- Mentoring programs are organized and implemented by our donors and other affiliated persons and include a weekly women's and monthly men's programming. Mentors are assigned to one student in grades 4-8 whom they visit weekly during the child's lunch hour to bond, talk, share and/or work on a craft or skill. Mentors remain with their assigned student throughout his/her tenure at Storefront Harlem. Similarly, new teachers also are mentored. Veteran teachers are matched with novice peers (assigned by school leaders). Once matched, both veteran and novice teachers foster a supportive, meaningful relationship.
- Annual spring career days provide Storefront students exposure to various fields of study and work. During career days different members of the community and school family volunteer to come and speak to students. These volunteers bring props and artifacts from their field of work and share their experiences with the school community.

Family and Community Engagement:

[4] Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence. RULER. Retrieved June 8, 2018 from http://ei.yale.edu/ruler/ruler-overview/.

- The goal of Storefront's parent education program is four-fold, to: 1) increase opportunities for engagement; 2) provide peer learning on various topics including student assessments and test prep (i.e., Winter Wonder Workshop) and Donuts for Dads and Muffins for Moms events with guest speakers; 3) orientation workshops including, but not limited to Kindergarten Round Up for new parents; and 4) knowledge-building to increase the capacity of parents to advocate for their children's education such as our support group for parents of students with disabilities.
- Storefront's strong school culture and sense of community is sustained via annual traditions, rituals and events. For example, students and families are oriented to "the Storefront way" during new student orientations held each June and Meet Your Teacher/Open House for all families scheduled every August. Other occasions include those promoting family time and fun like our annual Sesame Place family trip, community service activities (e.g., Toys for Tots and Christmas Angels/Adopt a Family), holiday celebrations (e.g., Trunk or Treat, Mother's Day Brunch, African Heritage Week and Cinco de Mayo), and cultural activities like our Pre-Celebration for NYC's annual Puerto Rican Day Parade and instill pride in our school, ourselves and our peers. More frequently and during the last Friday of each month, students participate in our core value-themed schoolwide assemblies during which a designated class presents a program, "Shout Outs" are shared, and students-, teachers- and staff-of-the-month are honored.

We believe that the aforementioned unique design elements provide evidence of Storefront's values-based learning environment and established culture of high expectations. Storefront Harlem will provide the children and families of East Harlem a quality school model nonexistent among the public options currently available to the community.

SCHOOL ESTABLISHMENT

1. Proposal History

(a) Applicant Information

The co-applicants for Storefront Harlem include the board chair of our replicating school, Jonathan Stearns and our proposed board chair of our merged education corporation, Ray Cameron.

(b) Proposal History

Upon approval we will seek authority to operate additional schools, therefore, this section is not applicable.

(c) List of Founding Team Members

The founding team for Storefront Harlem is comprised of a diverse group of educators, parents, community residents, outreach strategists, real estate professional(s), and funders/potential donors. Below is a list of all founding team members, not including those who are current or proposed board members. Since we submitted the Letter of Intent, several team members have been added to the founding board or its Advisory Council. Therefore, to avoid confusion and prevent the submission of an incomplete proposal, we provide a full list of Storefront Academy Harlem founding team members below. Those founding team members whom we propose to become members of Storefront Harlem's founding board are not included in the table below. Dr. Garcia's resume can be found as Response-03h.

4. Dr. Nicole Richardson-Garcia	School leadership	Executive Director of merged corporation	Nicole is a 20-year veteran educator. She has spent the better part of her career as a school leader in service of impoverished, urban environments bringing care, support and service to underserved populations of children and their families. She earned her undergraduate degree in Elementary Education and English from Delaware State University and her Master's degree from National-Louis University in Chicago and earned her doctorate in Educational Leadership from Bowie State University.

(d) Board Members

Achieve South Bronx board membership was selected from members of our founding team. The methods we used to recruit and select board members included outreach to individuals affiliated with the Storefront organization including funders, founders of The Children's Storefront, staff and strategic alliances with Harlem and South Bronx community organizations. Since we submitted the Letter of Intent, we've added several members to the founding board of the proposed education corporation board. Resumes for the full complement of founding board members can be found in Response-03i. The board membership proposed below is comprised of educators, artists, entrepreneurs, real estate professionals, media entrepreneurs, fiscal and human resources managers, parents and residents.

We currently have one vacant seat (i.e., an attorney who will chair our ad hoc Grievance Committee) which we will fill by August 1, 2018. This brings our total merged education corporation board membership to 11. Note: the Board's Advisory Council membership also is listed here, however, they are not Trustees. As with our founding team members, we have provided the full complement of founding board members below. Those names with an asterisk (*) are members of our existing education corporation, Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School, and therefore, we have not included these resumes.

(e) Description of Community Outreach Efforts

Our founders continue to engage in a comprehensive community outreach strategy to inform the East and Central Harlem communities about our school's intent to open. The methods used to inform stakeholders in these communities and CSD 5 at-large about Storefront Harlem have involved:

- Canvassing public housing, neighborhood retail outlets, subway stations and bus stops, and community agencies frequented by parents. We administered 203 surveys.
- One-on-one meetings phone and conference calls were conducted with district personnel, local business owners, community-based agencies, preschool staff, elected officials or their staff, public housing tenant associates, and others;
- Group informational sessions: Three sessions have occurred to date, resulting in the completion of numerous surveys;
- Targeted email correspondence to community leaders, elected officials, early childhood educators, and district personnel;
- Social media announcements and engagements at https://www.facebook.com/achievebronx/?modal=admin_todo_tour; and
- Dissemination of promotional materials during our neighborhood canvassing.

Since we submitted our Letter of Intent, we have continued to establish a presence in East Harlem. With support from Democracy Builders, we have connected or attempted to connect with numerous individuals representing the following stakeholder groups:

- CSD 5 Superintendent, CEC and CSE;
- Parents;
- Community leaders;
- Local business owners;
- Various community-based organizations and affiliated constituent groups;
- Area preschools;
- Elected officials or their staff;
- Local district superintendents and community board members or their staff;
- Faith-based representatives; and
- Several civic organizations.
- Outreach and Input Findings

Throughout all community outreach activities and connections made, our founders have requested community input in design decisions for Achieve South Bronx Charter School. The strategies used to solicit community input include that which was obtained via survey administrations and during the aforementioned community meetings. The form and nature of the feedback we received has included one-on-one conversations and/or written responses obtained during survey administrations, verbal solicitation and notetaking that occurred during our community meetings, verbal responses obtained during calendared one-on-one or small group meetings and quotes provided by stakeholders on our Facebook page.

Most of the community input that we received aligned with Storefront's key design elements. Therefore, our proposal incorporates the community feedback noted above, but also provides us with a prioritized list of design elements to emphasize and promote during future outreach activities. Members of our founding team will continue to engage in community outreach activities through June of 2019. Evidence of our community outreach efforts can be found in Response-03j.

(f) Withdrawn, Rejected and Concurrent Proposals

This proposal was not previously submitted, withdrawn from or rejected by the SUNY Trustees or any other authorizer. Storefront successfully submitted a proposal for Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School in 2014. We opened our South Bronx School SY2015-16.

Born and raised in the Bronx, NY, I began working in the social service field in foster care and prevention in 1984. In 2007, after 22 years, I left the social service field to attend school where I was the Salutatorian of my graduating class in Echocardiography Technology. After graduation, I performed sonograms of the heart (both pediatric and adult patients) for Wyckoff Hospital in Brooklyn. In 2011, I returned to the field of social services. I am currently employed as a Community Health Worker Supervisor, supervising six (6) Community Health Workers who provide health coaching and facilitate group wellness workshops to New York City Housing Authority (NYCHA) residents in East and Central Harlem. I served on the NYCHA Smoke Free Housing Advisory Board and now sit on NYCHA Healthy Homes Roundtable. I serve on two boards (a Head Start program and a charter school) in Harlem and the Bronx. I am part of the Health and Wellness Ministry committee and the Media Ministry committee at my church. I also facilitate workshops for Planned Parenthood, as an Adult Role Model, teaching parents healthy communication techniques when talking with their children about sexuality and development. Currently, I teach fitness classes for Shape Up NYC. I'm an ordained Minister, married with 5 children and 5 grandchildren.Born and raised in the Bronx, NY, I began working in the social service field in foster care and prevention in 1984. In 2007, after 22 years, I left the social service field to attend school where I was the Salutatorian of my graduating class in Echocardiography Technology. After graduation, I performed sonograms of the heart (both pediatric and adult patients) for Wyckoff Hospital in Brooklyn. In 2011, I returned to the field of social services. Elsie V. Aidinoff
980 Fifth Avenue
New York, N.Y. 10021

Elsie Aidinoff is Chair Emeritus of the Board of Trustees of the Children's Storefront, a tuition-free independent school in Harlem. Elsie joined the board of The Children's Storefront in 1980, and served as President of the Board from 1982-1997. She was a classroom teacher for seven years, and was closely involved in the Storefront's growth from a small preschool program to a full elementary school. She also organized and supervised a summer camp for Storefront students, which ran for 20 years in Lyme, Connecticut.

Elsie began her work in education with the New York City School Volunteer Program, (now Learning Leaders), for seven years as a tutor in a junior high school in Harlem and then as Chair of the Board of Trustees. In 1980 she spent one year in Hong Kong, where she ran a preschool program for 250 Vietnamese children at Sham Shui Po, a refugee camp for the Vietnamese boat people.

Elsie grew up in New England, and is a graduate of Smith College. She now considers New York City home, but has lived a total of 15 years abroad, in Paris, Brussels, Hong Kong and London.

In addition to the Children's Storefront, Elsie has been a trustee of the Public Education Association, the School Volunteer Program, The Edwin Gould Foundation for Children, The Poetry Society of America and Citizen's Union. She is an honorary trustee of Learning Leaders. In 2004 her novel, The Garden, was published by Harper Collins.

Gretchen Pusch

Flulist Gretchen Pusch made her Carnegie Recital Hall debut as winner of the Artist International Competition. She has appeared frequently in recital and as concerto soloist in North America, Europe and Asia. A member of the Dorian Wind Quintet, she has also collaborated in chamber music concerts with Peter Schickele, Anthony Newman, Maxence Larrieu and Paula Robison, among Others. Ms. Pusch has performed with the American Symphony, American Composers Orchestra, Brooklyn Philharmonic, New Jersey Symphony, Philharmonia Virtuosi and on Broadway. She has been heard on radio, television and recordings for CRI, VAI, Panasonic, Summit, Innova, Mode and Windham Hill. Formerly on the faculty of Rutgers University and the Juilliard School's Music Advancement Program, Ms. Pusch currently serves on the flute faculty of the International Festival Institute at Round Top and is a teaching artist for several fellowship programs. She served on the jury of the 2011 Maxence Larrieu International Flute Competition in Nice, France. She is a graduate of Boston University and studied with Julius Baker, James Pappoutsakis and Keith Underwood.

ADDIE MAE COLLINS COMMUNITY SERVICE

May 30, 2018

To whom it may concern:

This letter is written in support of the newly proposed Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School and its effort to begin a school in East Harlem.

It is our understanding that the Storefront is proposing to expand into Community School District 5 and offer 100 slots to Kindergarteners and First Graders with a program similar to the one currently operating in the Bronx under the name Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School. We understand that it would be in a non-collocated space and is aiming to open in the late summer of 2019.

As a community organization, we have been affiliated with the Storefront in the past and hope that the opportunity this application offers, if approved, will provide an excellent educational option for the families in this community.

Sincerely,

Diane Sparm

Mr. Ray Cameron
Storefront Academy - Harlem Charter Founding Team
[redacted]

Dear Mr. Cameron,

I am writing this letter in support of the application of the Storefront Academy of Harlem to open a charter school in Harlem, the sister school of the Storefront Academy Charter South Bronx.

The National Development Council (NDC) has worked closely with and supported the Storefront Academy of Harlem for at least a decade. The Academy, born a half century ago, has been an inspiration for all who have known it. Storefront offers unmatched quality education to striving young people in Harlem at no cost to the student or his/her family. The care and commitment of their staff is unequaled anywhere.

NDC is a nonprofit organization whose sole mission is to bring economic opportunity to low income communities and its residents. We see Storefront's mission totally aligned with NDC's mission. Education and opportunity are two essential ingredients to ending poverty and racism in this country.

Over the last decade, NDC has contributed more than $300,000 to Storefront through charitable donations and volunteer work from NDC, its board, its spouses, and its staff.

We love Storefront. We pledge to continue our support as they create a charter school in East Harlem, to continue the life changing work that a quality education offers.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Davenport,
President Emeritus and
Special Advisor to NDC Board and President

To Whom It May Concern:

I write this letter in support of the Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School (SAHCS), and the Academy's efforts to expand into East Harlem. In principle, the proposed school would replicate its sister institution, the highly-successful Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School. Since 2001, the South Bronx institution has produced a graduation rate of roughly 95%, which is well above the New York citywide graduation rate of 70 percent, and significantly higher than neighboring schools.

This school's anticipated curriculum is predicated on academic rigor, artistic creativity, and individual student development. The school's application of the tested "cluster model," which consolidates notably talented students into smaller groups to foster accelerated growth can breed vertical synchronization and a more fertile learning environment.

Please accept this correspondence as a formal gesture of support for the proposed Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School in East Harlem. The school, which expresses a desire to open in late Summer 2019, presents an undeniable opportunity for the students of Harlem. We ask that you take the Academy's application into serious consideration as the community recognizes the continued need for quality schools in East Harlem.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Joe Newman at [redacted]

I write this letter in support of the application submitted by Storefront Academy to expand their efforts to educate future generation in the Harlem community.

It has been shared with my office that Storefront Academy Harlem Center will operate within the New York City Department of Education's Community School District 5 – a proposed replication of its sister institution, Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School – a high performing charter located in the South Bronx. The proposed SAHCS is expected experience similar success and will open with 100 seats serving kindergartners and first graders in a non-collocated space, which appeals greatly to the community at-large. The school plans to offer a curriculum with an emphasis on academic rigor, the arts and strategic nurturing via the cluster model to assure vertical alignment of curriculum and strengthen the expected professional learning community. Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School is set to open in late Summer 2019.

My hope is that SAHCS's application for its charter is given a strong opportunity to offer the children of East Harlem, and beyond, an excellent educational option. We ask that you take their application in light of the needs families of our community have been asking for, equitable, quality educational opportunities.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I write this letter in support of the newly proposed Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School (SAHCS), and their efforts to expand into my community of East Harlem, New York.

It is understood that, as currently proposed, SAHCS will operate in the northeast quadrant of Manhattan Community School District (CSD) 5 – a proposed replication of its sister institution, Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School – a high performing charter located in the South Bronx. The proposed SAHCS is expected experience similar success and will open with 100 seats serving Kindergarteners and first-graders in a non-collocated space. The school plans to offer a curriculum with an emphasis on academic rigor, the arts and strategic nurturing via the cluster model to assure vertical alignment of curriculum and strengthen the expected professional learning community. Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School is set to open in late summer 2019.

My hope is that SAHCS is approved for its charter and given the opportunity to offer the children of East Harlem, and beyond, an excellent educational option. We ask that you take their application into serious consideration as the community recognizes the continued need for quality schools in East Harlem.

INPUT: From Prospective Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School Families and East Harlem Community Members

1. “I’m helping my daughter bring up my grandchild, and my biggest fear is of school safety. I’d like to know that the school is working hard to protect all of the children in the absence of their parents.”
2. “Class size is very important to me… My child was in a school that had 32 children per classroom and two teachers. Now that we’ve moved on, he’s doing much better in school. He actually, enjoys going to school now. The smaller class size has affected the way that he learns, and he’s now an honor roll student with two teachers serving 20 students… Much better.”
3. “It would be really nice to have a highly rated public school here. My husband and I live here with our two children, but we take them to other communities and pay for them to be educated because the schools are really poor here.”
4. “People know what a good school is… We just want to have the options to choose from- in the community where we live. It’s really important that we (as a community) take the money that countless parents are spending elsewhere on educating their children through private entities and re-invest it in our community here, where we live.”
5. “I think that the motto of charter schools should be that ‘We want to invest in your child because we know that you’re already invested in your child.’ I think that’s something that would resonate with everyone, regardless of how little or how much one has.”
6. “Diversity, and the manner in which schools are disciplining the children are very important matters to consider… as well as… Society as a whole is lacking in the morals, values, and ethics portion of life. When de we all become so material.”
7. From an eight-year-old boy: “I wish my school had soccer, swimming, and karate classes.”
8. “Urban areas are in need of more community organizations that are dedicated to uplifting our children- Let’s build self-esteem.”
9. “Schools are lacking good art’s programs.”
10. “My child goes to an afterschool program, but they never do homework there. Then I have another child who has a disability, but their current school doesn’t offer support.”

INPUT: From Prospective Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School Families and East Harlem Community Members

1. “I’m helping my daughter bring up my grandchild, and my biggest fear is of school safety. I’d like to know that the school is working hard to protect all of the children in the absence of their parents.”
2. “Class size is very important to me… My child was in a school that had 32 children per classroom and two teachers. Now that we’ve moved on, he’s doing much better in school. He actually, enjoys going to school now. The smaller class size has affected the way that he learns, and he’s now an honor roll student with two teachers serving 20 students… Much better.”
3. “It would be really nice to have a highly rated public school here. My husband and I live here with our two children, but we take them to other communities and pay for them to be educated because the schools are really poor here.”
4. “People know what a good school is… We just want to have the options to choose from- in the community where we live. It’s really important that we (as a community) take the money that countless parents are spending elsewhere on educating their children through private entities and re-invest it in our community here, where we live.”
5. “I think that the motto of charter schools should be that ‘We want to invest in your child because we know that you’re already invested in your child.’ I think that’s something that would resonate with everyone, regardless of how little or how much one has.”
6. “Diversity, and the manner in which schools are disciplining the children are very important matters to consider… as well as… Society as a whole is lacking in the morals, values, and ethics portion of life. When de we all become so material.”
7. From an eight-year-old boy: “I wish my school had soccer, swimming, and karate classes.”
8. “Urban areas are in need of more community organizations that are dedicated to uplifting our children- Let’s build self-esteem.”
9. “Schools are lacking good art’s programs.”
10. “My child goes to an afterschool program, but they never do homework there. Then I have another child who has a disability, but their current school doesn’t offer support.”

Discussion

Storefront Academy – Nicole Garcia
Nicole Garcia and her team came before the Education, Youth and Libraries Committee seeking a Letter of Support for a proposed Charter School to open in the Fall of 2019. They have yet to settle on a location. The original Storefront School opened in 1966 as a private school. That school has recently closed and they now operate a charter school in the Bronx. They believe that they have found a method that will be successful in teaching the children in our community. Questions were asked to clarify why the private school closed. Nicole mentioned that the school was located in a brownstone that was not safe and therefore needed to close. Storefront Academy was also questioned regarding data that would prove that the new model is successful. The new school in the Bronx will not have any data before next year as it has only been open three years. The committee voted 4 for and 4 against a letter of support.

College of New Rochelle – Errol Bedford
Errol Bedford is from the Rosa Parks Harlem Campus of the College of New Rochelle. They are located at 313 West 125th Street. He told us about the programs offered at this 4 year school including a state of the art nursing program. He invited all to visit for a tour.

Macomb's Bridge Library
There was no discussion about the library at this meeting.

We discussed the upcoming Third Annual Educational Resource Fair that was to take place on Saturday, May 19th from 11-3pm. All were encouraged to attend.

Next Committee Meeting Date will be June 19th being held at the Community Board Harlem Office located at 215 West 125 Street on the 4th floor at 6:30pm.

Can We Meet to Discuss Our Intent to Open?

My name is Tonia Kennedy, and I'm contacting you on behalf of Dan Clark- Democracy Builders, as we're proposing two new, non-collocated charter schools with great pedigree.

Both schools are in the process of completing their Charter application with the New York State Education Department (NYSED) and State University of New York (SUNY) to expand their network in CSD 5, but we need your help. One of the stipulations that we're obligated to adhere to is that we must inform your organization and others of their intent to start a new charter in your district. We believe that no child should have to travel outside their neighborhood/borough to receive a quality education.

I'd like to schedule a meeting to introduce our schools, share their background of high-performing schools, and, hopefully, to gain a letter of support. You can expect to hear from Mr. Dan Clark really soon. If you have any other questions or need more information, please feel free to contact me at this email address, or by phone at the number below.

Best Regards,

Tonia Kennedy

Dear Ms. Shana Harmongoff:

On Monday, May 7th you met with Mr. Dan Clark in your district office. I'm his assistant- Tonia Kennedy. I'm contacting you on behalf of Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School (SAHCS). The board of Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School (SASBCS) plans to submit an application to re;locate in CSD 5, Harlem. If authorized, the proposed Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School will open in Fall 2019.

We'd love to expand our network into your district, and can only do so with your help. We believe that no child should have to travel outside their neighborhood/borough to receive a quality education.

We'd like to schedule a meeting with Senator Brian Benjamin, or any other suitable alternate representative- at your district office to introduce ourselves, to share our background of high-performing schools, and to hopefully gain a letter of support. If you have any other questions or need anymore information, please feel free to contact me at this email address, or by phone at the number below.

Hi Nicole,

I'm Tonia Kennedy, Dan's Assistant. We've been CC'd on a few emails together.

Dan asked me to inform you of an appointment that he was able to lock down. Next week, Tuesday, May 15th at 6:30pm- Manhattan Community Board 10 is holding their monthly Education, Youth, and Libraries Committee Meeting, and Storefront has been added to the agenda. The address is 215 W. 125th St. 4th Floor, New York, NY 10027.

Also, Dan was able to secure a letter from a representative of the Committee on Special Education (CSE), and he's secured an appointment with the Superintendent's Executive Assistant for tomorrow to set up a meeting with the Superintendent.

Let me know if there's anything I can do to help move things along.

Thank you,

Yes, you'll have up to 30 minutes to present to the board as they ask you questions about the school and how it will be structured. Be sure to bring ten physical copies of your presentation to present to the committee. You should be prepared to answer questions surrounding the following topics...

- The academic design of the school
- The school's deliverables, i.e. what you promise to deliver to the children who attend your school
- Background/ accomplishments
- Inspiration for the new school
- What makes the new school unique
- Location and collocation
- Why was this district chosen over all others

Just so you're aware, after contacting Brian Benjamin's office, we we're advised to send a letter of support for their review and possible endorsement- although, we're not overly optimistic (He's recently claimed that he'll work to put a stop to charter schools.) The letter will go out tomorrow along with others to Charlie Rangel, and Assemblywoman Inez Dickens.

We look forward to seeing you tomorrow when we collect the SWAG, and our team will be in the streets on Friday to get surveys on behalf of Storefront Harlem.

Enjoy your evening,

Dear Ms. Yates:

I'm Tonia Kennedy, Dan Clark's Assistant. Because he's well aware of your busy schedule, he's asked me to check in with you as a reminder to connect with your contacts at the Community Education Council (CEC). We're looking to meet with a representative from their office as quickly as possible because of a tight deadline- May 31, 2018. Your help with this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Should you have questions, or are in need of more information, feel free to reach out to me via email or phone at the number listed below.

Good Morning,

Thanks for getting back to me so promptly... the names of those schools are Polyphonic Charter School- the founder of the amazing WHEELS charter is the founder of this school, and Storefront Academy who definitely has a strong background and network.

Let me know if there's anything else that I can do for you.

Also, heads up- I just received a phone call from a lady- The Chair of the CEC. She was very fired-up and voiced some valid concerns about charters overall. So... I'm thinking that you may be met with some opposition. The phone number she called from is [redacted]

I'm reaching out to thank you, on behalf of Dan Clark, for always being so helpful. He's really looking forward to seeing you this evening at the CB 10 Youth & Education meeting- his words, not mine.

At the very least, we are in desperate need of an appt. with the CEC, and are not expecting you to work miracles by getting them to say "yes" to writing a letter of support on behalf of Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School (SAHCS) and Polyphonic Charter School. Securing a meeting shows the authorizing members of the charter board that we asked for the CEC's support , and that is all we are required to show.

Again, Thanks a Million!

STOREFRONT ACADEMY

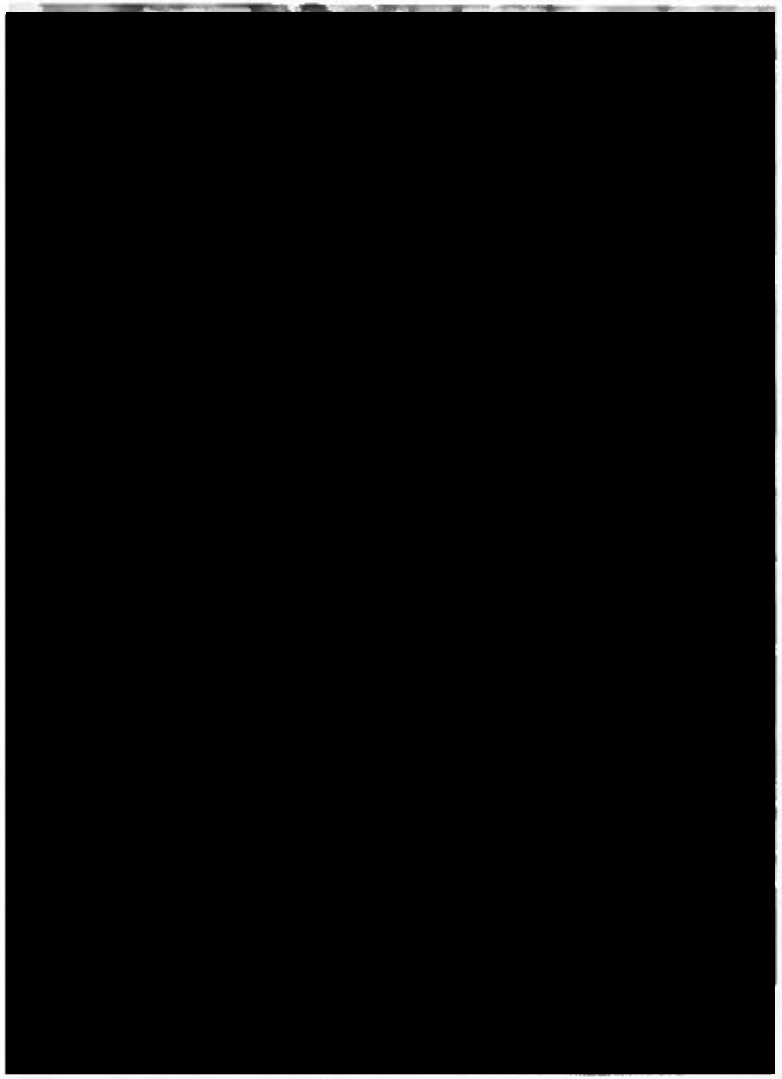
Expand the Possible. Own the Future.

Storefront Academy

Harlem Charter School

Under development proposed opening Fall 2019)

HISTORY OF THE STOREFRONT



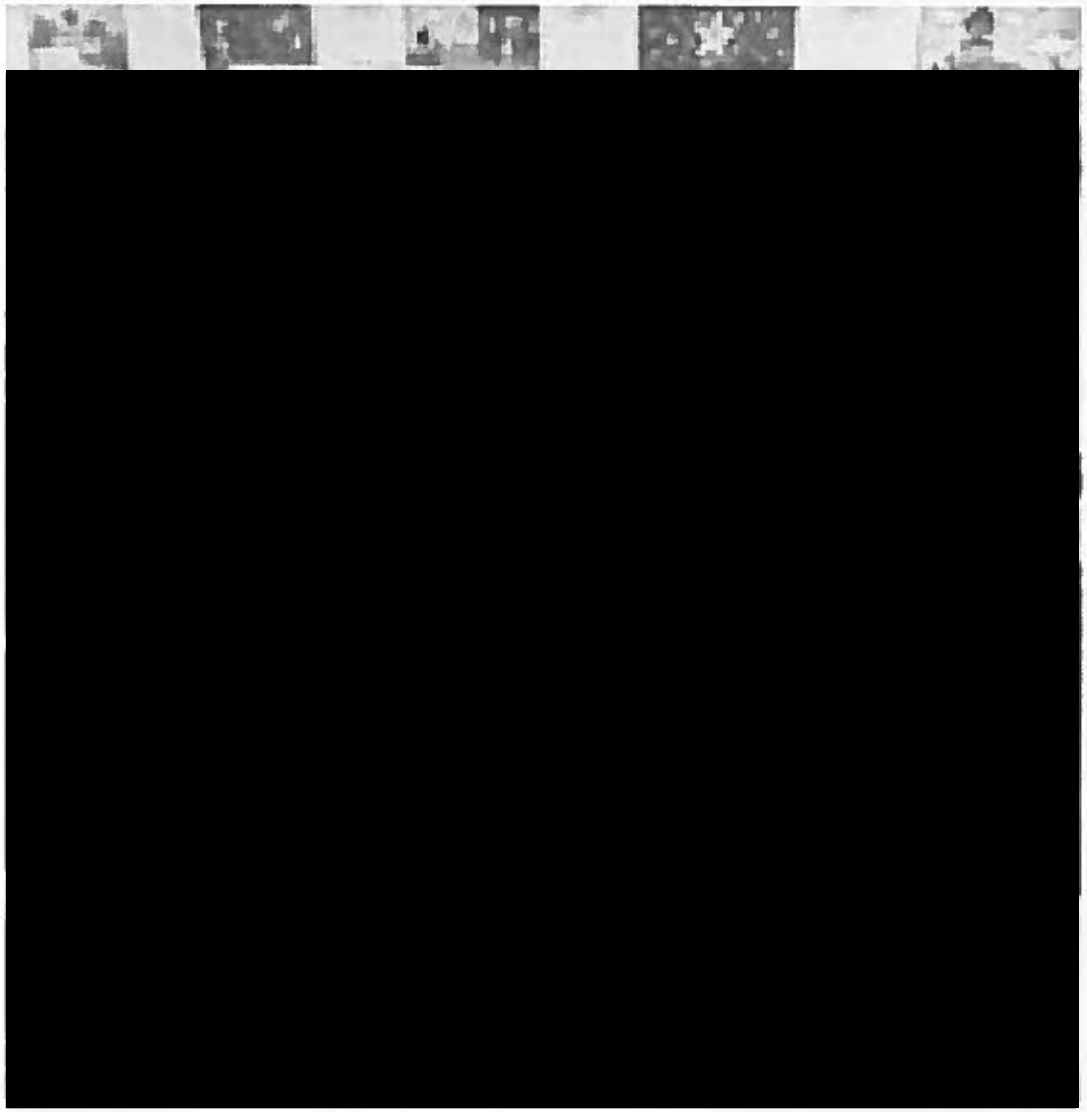
The Storefront was founded in 1966 by Ned O'Gorman, a poet and community activist, as a safe space for community children

In 1981, The Storefront grew into an elementary school serving grades K-8

In 1989, The Storefront graduated its first class

In 2014, the Storefront Organization opened the Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School (SASB)to serve the children and families of CSD 7

Storefront seeks to replicate SASB in East Harlem with a projected opening of Spring 2019



A SOUTH BRONX MODEL OF SUCCESS PRIMED FOR REPLICATION

SASB was founded on two principles:

academic rigor

and

strategic nurturing

SASB ACADEMIC MODEL

Extended and Uninterrupted Reading and Math Blocks Daily

120 minutes of Reading
90 minutes of Math

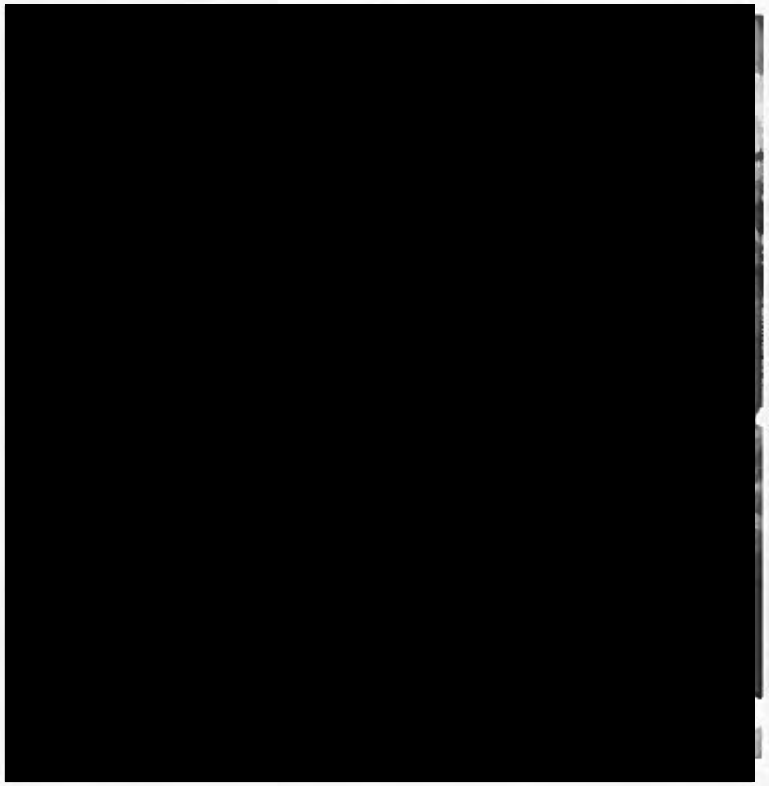
Co-Teaching Model
Ratio: 12:1
One ICT Classroom on each grade level

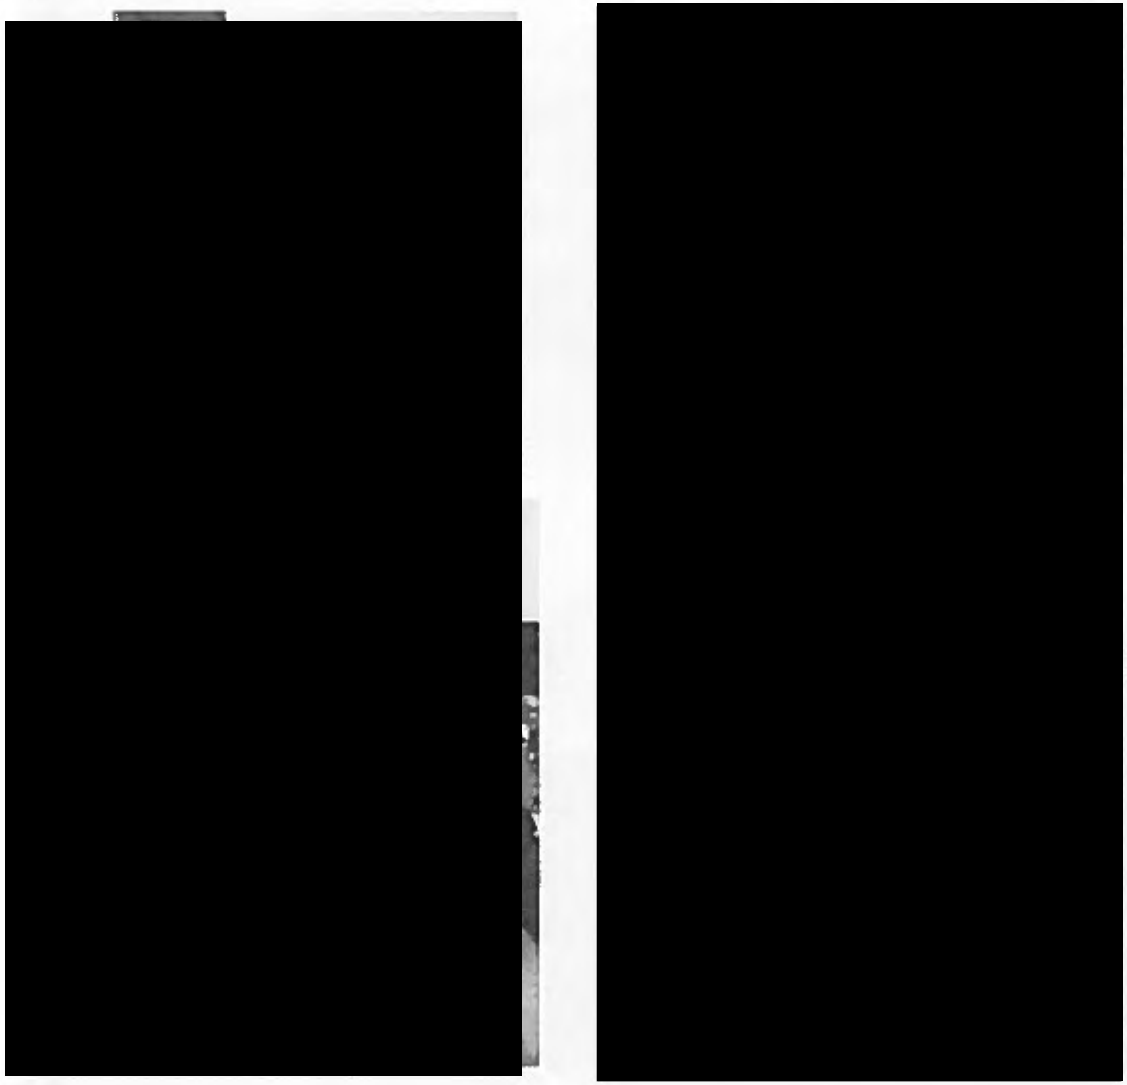
Fundations for all students and Double Dose for ELL students

Social Emotional Learning (SEL) presented in classrooms one hour per week

Positive Behavior Incentive Model

Quarterly NWEA MAP Testing and Data Analysis

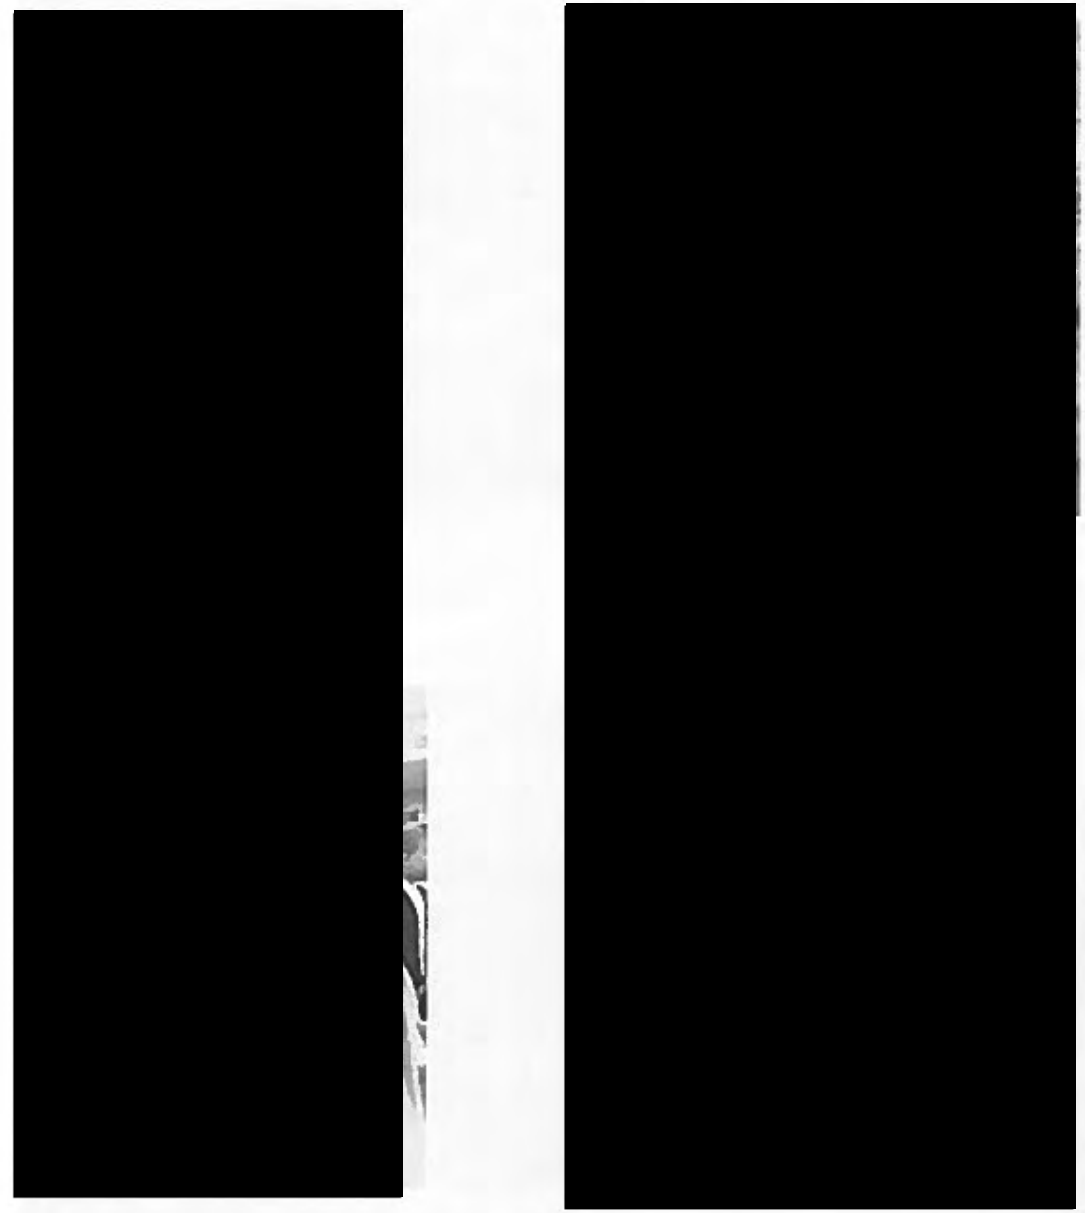




WHAT SHOULD YOU EXPECT FROM AN SASB EXPERIENCE?

Storefront Academy faculty members are specially trained to differentiate instruction to meet the needs of all learners.

Since Storefront Academy admits students with no regard to academic level or test results, teachers must effectively scaffold lessons to ensure optimal support for optimal learning, always with the goal of moving every student toward independence.



SASB POSITIVE BEHAVIOR MODEL

Storefront Academy's academic program stresses the importance o self-direction and building streng of character.

This is reinforced with an emphasis on Storefront Academy's Core Values (concern for others, respe honesty, perseverance, responsibility, and diligence) thes are the cornerstone of Storefront Academy's school-wide behavior management system.

[redacted]

[redacted]

THE SASB PARENTAL ENGAGEMENT MODEL

One of the cornerstones of our programming is involving parents in every facet of their child's education…academic or extracurricular.

The Storefront maintains an open door policy for all parents and families throughout every academic day

Parents have a continuous and direct line to communicate with school staff and leadership

To Whom It May Concern:

On May 10th, 2018 Achieve Community Charter School presented to Community Board One; and, the Bronx Community Board One approved a letter of support for the opening of Achieve to serve the South Bronx community.

Bronx Community Board One would like to offer its support for the proposed Achieve Community Charter School, and their efforts to expand into our community of the South Bronx. The Community Board understands that the school will ultimately be a K-8 with a foundation rooted in individualized college preparatory curriculum and instruction, innovation and computer science, and values driven school culture.

The mission of Achieve Community Charter School is to build innovators who graduate college ready to solve the world's next set of challenges. The vision of the Achieve Community Charter School is to provide a Pre-K-12 continuum that fosters the individual needs of students as they develop the skills, character and values that will prepare them for college and empower them to use their unique perspective as an asset to shape our country's future.

Bronx Community Board One requests that you consider their application for approval, as there is a continued need for more quality school seats in the South Bronx. The creation of Achieve Community Charter School would help address the need for more seats and provide a strong support system for students who enroll.

The BRICK (Building Responsible Intelligent Creative Kids) schools network have been among the most successful in New Jersey, and I expect the founding of the South Bronx campus of Achieve will be a similar success.

Any member of Community Board One or their constituents can submit questions and/or comments to the Achieve to [redacted]

Good morning I am the CEC5 president for district 5 , I briefly spoke with you last week. Today is our calendar meeting that is open to the public . If you would like to come to that meeting and share what your plans are , the entire school community will be there it starts at 6:30 pm at PS 125 on 123 street between morningside and Amsterdam Avenue . maybe you need to bring the individuals , who wants to open the charters since it is not your office .

Thank you

Hi Nicole,

This is an email that came through this morning from the CEC President, Dr. Sanayi Canton. I emailed and spoke to her last week. When she called, she was extremely passionate, to say the least, about her district being flooded with charter schools. She gave several reasons why she, and others, don't want charters in their district. It will definitely be a fight/ rough sell, but I think that attending will prove that you're serious about the newly proposed school coming into fruition. Dan told me how well you did last night at CB 10, and I believe that you have the power to turn her around. One thing she mentioned is that she likes Storefront, but she's concerned about the closing of the Storefront private school. I only mention that so you're prepared and armed with information and a clear intent.

This meeting is very important because it's sponsored by the CEC and the charter application requires that we inform them of our intent. Until now, they have avoided meeting with us.

No problem,

I'll reach out to Dr. Canton to try my best to spin this into a personal meeting. Meanwhile, we have another option that may help us to fulfill the most basic requirement of the charter board. I really wanted you to have the opportunity to change her mind about your school because she has the power to influence others within the district. For instance, Debra Yates, CB 10 Youth and Education Chair, whom you presented before last night- they are really good friends. In fact, after the presentation last night, she spoke to Dr. Canton on your behalf. Then, first thing this morning Dr. Canton reached out with this opportunity.

If, by some stroke of luck, I'm able to get Dr. Canton to agree on a meeting- can you give me some dates and times that will work for you?

Hi Jerry,

It was such a pleasure to meet you last week!

Yes, Dan will be there. Some things she mentioned to me...

- Her district is overcrowded with charter schools
- Many charter schools return students to the public school system- high turn around
- Certain charters in her district have been involved in scandal i.e. Storefront Private school and Success Academy to name a couple
- Charters "cherry pick" the best students from the district, which is unfair to other students who may want or need those opportunities as well
- Charters take away funding from existing public schools and its the students and their families who suffer. When they return the students to public school- the funding stays with them

These are just some objections that she raised to me. Let me know if there is anything else I can do.

Thanks for arranging this. Nicole is the best spokesperson for the proposed school. She's got conflicting priorities today that do not enable her to attending tonight's meeting (e.g., school-related activities for students and parents and child care arrangements needed for her daughter). I recommend going back to Sanayi with additional options for a sit-down. Meanwhile, let's use Sanayi's email and your response requesting another date as evidence for the charter application.

Thanks all,

Dear Assemblyman Al Taylor:

I'm Tonia Kennedy, and I'm contacting you on behalf of Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School (SAHCS). The board of Storefront Academy South Bronx Charter School (SASBCS) plans to submit an application to open a new location in CSD 5, Harlem. If authorized, the proposed Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School will open in Fall 2019.

We'd love to expand our network into your district, and can only do so with your help. We believe that no child should have to travel outside their neighborhood/borough to receive a quality education.

We'd like to schedule a meeting with you or any other suitable, alternate representative at your district office. We want to introduce ourselves, to share our background of high-performing schools, and to hopefully gain a letter of support. If you have any other questions or need anymore information, please feel free to contact me at this email address, or by phone at the number below.

By the way, I love your picture from your website. You remind me of "A Spike Lee Joint"! Any who...

Good Morning Ms. Dedegbe,

Thanks for getting back to me. I know that AM Dickens keeps a busy schedule. We will accept the appointment for June 8th 2018 at 1pm in your district office.

As far as questions go...

Is your district office is equipped with a projector, or do you prefer a physical presentation?

How many people will we be presenting to?

Is there anything that your office usually likes to see in these types of meetings, or is there anything specific that we should bring?

Are there any questions we should be prepared to answer?

Good Morning,

The office does not have a projector. It is entirely up to you what you would like to bring and how you would like to present your information. I would recommend a physical copy of some sort so that you can leave it with the office. You will most likely be presenting to AM Dickens, Lermond Mayes (Chief of Staff), Paul Staley (Community Liaison), and Ricardo Aguirre (Counsel). As far as questions go, I would say that you should be well versed as to what you are addressing, benefits, obstacles and how it has worked in the past.

I hope this helps,

Hi Ms. Montgomery,

I write this letter per our conversation earlier this morning. We're saddened to hear of the unfortunate passing of Assemblyman Denny Farrell. It is understandable that Assemblywoman Inez Dickens won't be able to make our meeting, and we are thankful that your office will be able to provide a suitable replacement in Mr. Paul Staley, Community Liaison. We will be most happy to meet on June 1, 2018 at 1pm.

Thank you,

Tonia Kennedy

INPUT: From Prospective Storefront Academy Harlem Charter School Families and East Harlem Community Members

1. “I’m helping my daughter bring up my grandchild, and my biggest fear is of school safety. I’d like to know that the school is working hard to protect all of the children in the absence of their parents.”
2. “Class size is very important to me… My child was in a school that had 32 children per classroom and two teachers. Now that we’ve moved on, he’s doing much better in school. He actually, enjoys going to school now. The smaller class size has affected the way that he learns, and he’s now an honor roll student with two teachers serving 20 students… Much better.”
3. “It would be really nice to have a highly rated public school here. My husband and I live here with our two children, but we take them to other communities and pay for them to be educated because the schools are really poor here.”
4. “People know what a good school is… We just want to have the options to choose from- in the community where we live. It’s really important that we (as a community) take the money that countless parents are spending elsewhere on educating their children through private entities and re-invest it in our community here, where we live.”
5. “I think that the motto of charter schools should be that ‘We want to invest in your child because we know that you’re already invested in your child.’ I think that’s something that would resonate with everyone, regardless of how little or how much one has.”
6. “Diversity, and the manner in which schools are disciplining the children are very important matters to consider… as well as… Society as a whole is lacking in the morals, values, and ethics portion of life. When de we all become so material.”
7. From an eight-year-old boy: “I wish my school had soccer, swimming, and karate classes.”
8. “Urban areas are in need of more community organizations that are dedicated to uplifting our children- Let’s build self-esteem.”
9. “Schools are lacking good art’s programs.”
10. “My child goes to an afterschool program, but they never do homework there. Then I have another child who has a disability, but their current school doesn’t offer support.”
