2009-10 Annual Report
August 1, 2010

Brooklyn Prospect Charter School

MODIFICATIONS TO THE SCHOOL'S EDUCATIONAL PROGRAM AND GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

Describe any significant changes to the school's educational program as well as its governance structure. If there are no changes, please indicate N/A.

Educational Program Modifications:

Brooklyn Prospect Charter School (BPCS) plans to make several changes to the ELA program in 2010-11 to better serve our students. This year, the ELA program offered students 45 minutes of instruction. Though that was sufficient for many of our students, we found that the lower performing students lacked some basic reading comprehension skills, which led to academic struggles for them. Next year, an additional 50-minute ELA class with specific literacy interventions will be required for sixth and seventh grade students identified as needing extra ELA support. The ELA Department will also create standardized student practices for before/ during/ after reading activities, and BPCS templates for taking notes and maintaining organization. Finally, all students will participate in a 40 minute study hall period during the academic school day. SETSS, ELA and math tutoring and the additional literacy class will take place during this period rather than after school as they were this year.

Governance Structure Modifications – N/A

Statement of Assurances

Our signatures below attest that all of the information contained herein is truthful and accurate, and that this charter school is in compliance with all aspects of its charter, and with all pertinent Federal, State, and local laws, regulations, and rules. We understand that if any information in any part of this report is found to have been deliberately misrepresented, that will constitute grounds for the revocation of our charter.
